RIDDLE:
How many clubs in total come together to form the Technical Society

NEXT CLUE: Seek the house of the warp and weft, of yarn and spun design, where threads are pulled and weaves aligned.
Bypass the front;venture deep where the corrdiors end, To the far back reachesb where few footsteps bend. Near the room probed to the bone, stands a human silhouotte, silent and lone.
Find the body hidden at the tail of the weaves

who got the best software club this year ?

NEXT CLUE: Not a classroom, not a students, den, The seat of the one who governs the pen. In the native tongue, an abode stands proud, where the campus captain rests far from the crowd. Approach the premier threshold of the university's helm.

RIDDLE:
most used programming language for AI/ML

NEXT CLUE: Gaze upon the sleekest frontier out campus has made, where founders pitch and rocket-bound dreams never fade. It feels like another world standing before your eyes, Yet the prize doesnt wait where sleek towers rise. Turn your back to tomorrow, face the old gears and grime, On the rough outer flanks where machines pass the time

RIDDLE: Zairza was orignally named as Zairza ____ Labs Fill in the blanks

NEXT CLUE: Beyond the lecture halls and chalky dust, Where the mentors rest when day's work is hushed. Not for the scholars nor for the crowd, a tranquil lane where no roll call is loud.
Seek the domestic haven of those who grade and guide
